CYTO TO SUPPORT BALTIMORE HOMELESS SERVICES

Columbia, Maryland – Cyto Communications has been selected by Baltimore Homeless Services, Inc., (BHS), to provide organizational communications services. Formerly the Baltimore City Office of Homeless Services, BHS is a non-profit organization that administers approximately $24 million in grants for homeless services.

“This is an organization with a very aggressive mission and one that is vital to the health of the community. We’re delighted to be asked to help them move forward with such a vital agenda to help people,” said John Phelan, Cyto Communications managing partner.”
