CYTO AND ENGINEERING FIRM CONTINUE PARTNERSHIP ON BALTIMORE WATER SYSTEM PROJECT

Columbia, Maryland – Cyto Communications and the engineering firm of Paton, Harris, Rust & Associates of Chantilly, Va., and Columbia, Md., will continue their longstanding collaboration to assist the City of Baltimore with Improvements to the Ashburton Pumping Station.

Cyto will serve as the project liaison to the community.

“We’re thrilled to maintain a relationship that spans more than 10 years with Paton, Harris, Rust & Associates,” said Cyto Managing Partner Rich Badmington. “We’re proud to be associated with this firm and its leadership team that continues to earn the confidence of Baltimore City’s Department of Public Works.”
